Report

Awareness programme on Relevance of Gender Education was held on 22.05.2024 at Nakshalbari College in Hall-C. The Programme was organized by Internal Complaints Committee in collaboration with IQAC of Nakshalbari College. The basic aim of the Programme is to make a consciousness among the staff and Students about gender education. In this programme the Resource person discussed about the difference between Sex and gender along with its relevance in today's society. Apart from that she also discussed on gender discrimination that present in many sectors of the society and given emphasis on the implementation of gender education in educational institution to change the outlook of the society regarding gender discrimination. At the same time the Presiding Officer of ICC has given a detailed idea about the working of the ICC and also discussed about the process of complaint in ICC. The programme ended with a vote of thanks given by the IQAC Coordinator, Washim Akram.
